VIC ASUNCION

Everything changed for Clint when her best friend, Laci, whom he secretly loved, got married. From having the second date of his entire life to reliving the days in the past. Now back to where it all started, he has the chance to have the story retold. He gets to experience all the events the second time which means he needs to make choices again, he needs to go through high school and college again, he needs to tell something to his nephew again when his mother committed suicide, and he needs to survive again the world where, according to Eric, the good doesn't last long.
